◀ Biographies are my favorite reads, maybe because I'm really fascinated by people. Without sounding really corny, the best part about what I do is getting to know my clients.

Hire Him: Michael Shannon

▲ I like the bold nature of these cuff links. They're very much craft. John Hardy Batu Kali cuff links, $250 at Neiman Marcus, the Plaza at King of Prussia, 610-354-0500, neimanmarcus.com.

Anyone who's anyone knows Michael Shannon is pretty much the man to see about smart, timeless interior design. What inspires him: clever craft, local art, his circa-1840 Queen Village trinity, and his handsome sidekick, Jackson. Michael Shannon Designs, 1315 Walnut Street, 215-717-1094.

▼ This wallpaper is very graphic. I like the black-and-white colorway best. I love a little bit of black in just about any interior. Malabar by David Hicks for Cole & Son, available through your designer at Lee Jofa, Marketplace Design Center, 2400 Market Street, 215-567-6455, leejofa.com.

▼ Gilbert Rohde, the first director of design for Herman Miller, designed this case piece. I bought it 14 years ago at Freeman's for $500. I paid $900 to have it refinished by Brian Boland. Freeman's, 1808 Chestnut Street, 215-563-9275, freemansauction.com; Boland Woodworking, 5224 Greene Street, Media, 215-843-5348, bolandwoodworking.com.

▲ Edna Andrade does this psychedelic work and had her paintings made into puzzles in the '70s. I just went to her 90th birthday party at Marian Locks' gallery. Locks Gallery, 600 Washington Square South, 215-629-1000, locksgallery.com.

▶ Jackson comes to work every day. He receives all guests at the office. He's in-house security. Morris Animal Refuge, 1242 Lombard Street, 215-735-3256, morrisanimalrefuge.org.
